hey Marjorie he's the grinning plaid / derailment on your tracks puts you high on a pedestal / then climbs up on your back do you see it coming / hear the hollow roar / of a fast approaching day you'll school his petty universe / send him packing on his way

hey hey Marjorie / Marjorie hey hey ...

hey hey Marjorie / ... wrap that serpent back around his tree

hey Marjorie you're his rock'n muse / that never let him down takes your love for granted / drools and howls like a hound swears he'll learn his lessons / your cozy future's looking bright then he falls among his habits / as he roams into the night

hey hey Marjorie / ... wrap that serpent back around his tree

flying solo with the children / you anticipate the worst in case of an emergency / just get your mask on first!

( hey Marjorie he's the grinning plaid / derailment on your tracks )
( who put you high on a pedestal / then climbed up on your back )

now it's too late to come together

much too late to come together would you ever come together?

come together?
